

Text Only
Search

17 Nov 2004 1909 UTC

- Home
- VOANews
- About VOA
- Select Language
- Contact Us

- PRESS ROOM
- VOA INFORMATION
- SCHEDULES
- PROGRAMS
- OUR ORGANIZATION
- CONTACT US
- VISIT VOA

Call in to VOA Programs Today

-  Printer Friendly Version
-  E-mail this article to a friend

Today's Talk to America English call-in show at 1600 UTC explores "The Chinese Tao of Business." Usha Haley, Professor of Management, and George Haley, Prof. of Marketing and International Business, both from the University of New Haven, will discuss how managers discover, develop, and implement successful business strategies for China and the global economy. Check their webpage for more details on Talk to America and upcoming programs.

And on today's Russian call-in program, Talking to America, we commemorate the long-standing struggle for freedom of the press. On this date in 1734, Colonial American printer and journalist John Peter Zenger was arrested and imprisoned for libel. His trial remains an important landmark in the fight for press freedom. At 1800 UTC Alex Lupis from the Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ) and Svetlana Kalinkina, who was awarded one of this year's CPJ International Press Freedom awards, join us to talk about the state of press freedom around the globe and their own experiences.

FAQs | Terms of Use & Privacy Notice | Broadcasting Board of Governors | Site Map